The majority, and possibly all, of these distributions will be paid out of net investment income earned by the Funds, if applicable. Some portion, or all of the distribution may comprise capital gains or return of capital.

The amount of distributions paid by each fund may vary from time to time. Past amounts of distributions are no guarantee of future distributions payment amounts.

VanEck Vectors does not provide legal, tax or accounting advice. Any statement contained in this communication concerning U.S. tax matters is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties imposed on the relevant taxpayer. Shareholders or potential shareholders of the VanEck Vectors ETFs should obtain their own independent tax advice based on their particular circumstances.

ETF shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in kind and/or in cash. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market.

For more information on VanEck Vectors ETFs and their underlying indices, call 800.826.2333. Investing involves substantial risk and high volatility, including possible loss of principal. Bonds and bond funds will decrease in value as interest rates rise. Please see the prospectus and summary prospectus for more details. VanEck Vectors ETF shares trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk and will fluctuate in market value. The market price of a VanEck Vectors ETF's shares may be more or less than the net asset value.

An investor should consider the investment objective, risks, charges and expenses of VanEck Vectors ETFs carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus and summary prospectus, which contains this and other information, call 800.826.2333 or visit vaneck.com.
