The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

VanEck Global Mining UCITS ETF (the "Fund")

a sub-fund of VanEck UCITS ETFs plc (the "Company")

Share Class: USD A ISIN: IE00BDFBTQ78

This Fund is managed by VanEck Asset Management B.V., a subsidiary of Van Eck Associates Corporation.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund's investment objective is to replicate, before fees and expenses, the price and yield performance of the EMIX Global Mining Constrained Weights Index (the "Index"). In order to seek to achieve its investment objective, the policy of the Fund is to invest directly in the underlying equity securities of the Index, being the stock, American depository receipts and global depository receipts issued by mining and metals companies whose predominant economic activity is the production of base metals and industrial such as iron ore and coal. Further, the Fund may hold the equity securities of companies whose predominant economic is in gold or other precious metal of mineral mining, however the Fund does not hold physical gold or metal.

Where it is not practical or cost efficient for the Fund to fully replicate the Index, the Investment Manager may utilise an optimized sampling methodology.

The Fund may also or alternatively invest in financial derivative instruments which relate to the Index or constituents of the Index.

Further, the Fund may use futures, swaps (for example Index swaps and equity swaps), currency forwards and non-deliverable forwards (a forward contract that does not require settlement on maturity), American depository receipts, global depository receipts or participation notes.

The Fund may also invest in ancillary liquid assets and money market instruments that may include bank deposits, depository receipts, certificates of deposit, commercial paper, floating rate notes and freely transferable promissory notes.

The Fund may be leveraged through the use of financial derivative instruments; any such leverage would not be expected to be in excess of 100% of the Fund's Net Asset Value. The Fund may not invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in open-ended collective investment schemes. The Fund may borrow money in an amount up to 10% of the market value of its net assets at any time for the account of any Fund and the Custodian may charge the assets of the Fund as security for any such borrowing, provided that such borrowing is only for temporary purposes.

The Fund invests in the underlying (physical) securities that make up the Index and does not take part in securities lending.

The Fund, using a "passive" or indexing investment approach, attempts to approximate the investment performance of the Index by investing in a portfolio of securities that generally replicates the Index. The Investment Manager will regularly monitor the Fund's tracking accuracy.

Recommendation: This Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.

- Distribution policy: Income accumulated

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator is calculated using historical and simulated historical data. Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future. Therefore, the risk classification may change over time.

Even if the Fund is in the lowest risk category, it does not mean it is risk free or that capital is guaranteed or protected.

This Fund is ranked at 7 because funds of this type have experienced very high rises and falls in value in the past.

Investments in metals mining companies are subject to sectorspecific risks which include competitive pressures, dependency on the price metals, and worldwide economic, financial and political events.

The following risks can be materially relevant but are not necessarily adequately captured by the synthetic risk indicator and may cause additional loss:

- Risk of Investing in Natural Resources Companies: Investments in natural resources and natural resources companies, which include companies engaged in alternatives (e.g., water and alternative energy), base and industrial metals, energy and precious metals, are very dependent on the demand for, and supply and price of, natural resources and can be significantly affected by events relating to these industries, including international political and economic developments, embargoes, tariffs, inflation, weather and natural disasters, limits on exploration, often changes in the supply and demand for natural resources and other factors.

- Emerging Markets Risk: Investments in emerging market countries are subject to specific risks and securities are generally less liquid and less efficient and securities markets may be less well regulated. Specific risks may be heightened by currency fluctuations and exchange control; imposition of restrictions on the repatriation of funds or other assets; governmental interference; higher inflation; social, economic and political uncertainties.
- Risk of investing in smaller companies: The securities of smaller companies may be more volatile and less liquid than the securities of large companies. Smaller companies, when compared with larger companies, may have a shorter history of operations, fewer financial resources, less competitive strength, may have a less diversified product line, may be more susceptible to market pressure and may have a smaller market for their securities.
