Figures are based on MVEMAG as of 6/30/2017. These figures represent averages. Yield to Worst: measures the lowest of either yield-to-maturity or yield-to-call date on every possible call date. Yield to Worst is not intended to predict or project the performance of the fund, and that past performance is no guarantee of future results. Yield to Maturity is the annualized return on a bond held to maturity. Yield to Call is the yield of a bond held until the call date. Effective Duration: measures a bond's sensitivity to interest rate changes that reflect the change in a bond's price given a change in yield. This duration measure is appropriate for bonds with embedded options. Credit Quality: Standard and Poor's Credit Ratings – credit ratings of A or better are considered to be high credit quality; credit ratings of BBB are good credit quality and the lowest category of investment grade; credit ratings BB and below are lower rated securities ("high yield"); and credit ratings of CCC or below have high default risk.

MVIS EM Aggregate Bond Index (the "Index") is the exclusive property of MV Index Solutions GmbH (the "Index Provider"), which has contracted with Solactive AG (the "Calculation Agent") to calculate the Index. The Calculation Agent is not an adviser for or a fiduciary to any account, fund, or ETF managed by Van Eck Associates Corporation. The Calculation Agent is not responsible for any direct, indirect, or consequential damages associated with indicative optimized portfolio values and/or indicative intraday values. VanEck Vectors Emerging Markets Aggregate Bond ETF (the "Fund") is not sponsored, endorsed, sold, or promoted by the Index Provider, which makes no representation regarding the advisability of investing in the Fund.

Any indices listed are unmanaged indices and include the reinvestment of all dividends, but do not reflect the payment of transaction costs, advisory fees or expenses that are associated with an investment in a fund. An index's performance is not illustrative of a fund's performance. Indices are not securities in which investments can be made.

ETF Net Asset Values (NAVs) are determined at the close of each business day, and represent the dollar value of one share of the fund; it is calculated by taking the total assets of the fund, subtracting total liabilities, and dividing by the total number of shares outstanding. The NAV is not necessarily the same as the ETF's intraday trading value. ETF investors should not expect to buy or sell shares at NAV.

Fund shares are not individually redeemable and will be issued and redeemed at their NAV only through certain authorized broker-dealers in large, specified blocks of shares called "creation units" and otherwise can be bought and sold only through exchange trading. Creation units are issued and redeemed principally in kind. Shares may trade at a premium or discount to their NAV in the secondary market. You will incur brokerage expenses when trading Fund shares in the secondary market.

Fixed income securities are subject to credit risk and interest rate risk. High yield bonds may be subject to greater risk of loss of income and principal, and are likely to be more sensitive to adverse economic changes than higher rated securities. International investing involves additional risks, which include greater market volatility, the availability of less reliable financial information, higher transactional and custody costs, taxation by foreign governments, decreased market liquidity, and political instability. Changes in currency exchange rates may negatively impact the Fund's return. Investments in emerging markets securities are subject to elevated risks, which include, among others, expropriation, confiscatory taxation, issues with repatriation of investment income, limitations of foreign ownership, political instability, armed conflict, and social instability. Investors should be willing to accept a high degree of volatility and the potential of significant loss. Diversification does not assure a profit nor protect against loss. Please see the Fund's prospectus for full disclosure information.

Investing involves substantial risk and high volatility, including possible loss of principal. Bonds and bond funds will decrease in value as interest rates rise. An investor should consider the investment objective, risks, charges and expenses of a Fund carefully before investing.
