

Refine Your Retail Exposure

RTH[®] | VanEck Retail ETF

Investing In The Retail Industry

The retail sector is an incredibly dynamic industry that ranges from food and clothes to tech and luxury items. The types of businesses vary dramatically from physical to online to wholesale. Specifically, these include retail distribution, wholesales, on-line, direct mail and TV retailers, multi-line retailers, specialty retailers and food and other staples retailers. RTH targets publicly traded companies that derive the majority of their revenue from these specialties.

VanEck Retail ETF (RTH) seeks to replicate as closely as possible, before fees and expenses, the price and yield performance of the MVIS®US Listed Retail 25 Index (MVRTHTR), which is intended to track the overall performance of companies involved in retail distribution, wholesalers, on-line, direct mail and TV retailers, multi-line retailers, specialty retailers and food and other staples retailers. Such companies may include medium-capitalization companies and foreign companies that are listed on a U.S. exchange. To be initially eligible for the Retail Index, companies must generate at least 50% of their revenues from retail. Retail includes companies engaged primarily in retail distribution; wholesalers; online, direct mail and TV retailers; multi-line retailers; specialty retailers, such as apparel, automotive, computer and electronics, drug, home improvement and home furnishing retailers; and food and other staples retailers.
