We are pleased to inform you that, at the recommendation of the Adviser, the Trust’s Board has appointed China Asset Management (Hong Kong) Limited (the “Sub-Adviser”) to serve as a new sub-adviser to the Fund. This Information Statement provides information about the Sub-Adviser, and discusses the terms of, and the Board’s considerations in approving, the sub-advisory agreement with the Sub-Adviser. As a condition of the Exemptive Order, the Adviser and the Trust are required to furnish shareholders with information about new sub-advisers and/or changes to the existing sub-advisory agreements.

BACKGROUND

At a meeting held on December 3, 2013 and pursuant to the Adviser's recommendation, the Board approved the Sub-Adviser as sub-adviser for the Fund and approved the corresponding investment sub-advisory agreement between the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser (the "Sub-Advisory Agreement"). The Sub-Adviser assumed investment advisory responsibility with respect to its allocated portion ("Allocated Portion") of the Fund's portfolio effective January 7, 2014.

The Trustees determined to initially approve the Sub-Advisory Agreement after an analysis of the proposed services to be provided by the Sub-Adviser. The material factors considered by the Trustees in approving the Sub-Advisory Agreement are set forth below under "Board Considerations."

The Fund seeks to replicate as closely as possible, before fees and expenses, the price and yield performance of the CSI 300 Index (the "Index"), a modified free-float market capitalization weighted index compiled and maintained by China Securities Index Co., Ltd. The Fund normally invests at least 80% of its total assets in securities that comprise the Index and/or in investments that have economic characteristics that are substantially identical to the economic characteristics of the securities that comprise the Index. The Index is a diversified index comprised of 300 China A-share ("A-shares") stocks listed on the Shenzhen and/or Shanghai Stock Exchanges, representing the largest and most liquid stocks in the Chinese A-share market. In managing its Allocated Portion of the Fund, the Sub-Adviser attempts to approximate the investment performance of the Index by investing directly in a portfolio of A-shares that generally replicate the Index. As of December 31, 2013, the Index included 300 securities of companies with a market capitalization range of between approximately $1.1 billion and $236.9 billion and a weighted average market capitalization of $36.1 billion.

A-shares are issued by companies incorporated in mainland China and are traded in renminbi ("RMB") on the Shenzhen and Shanghai Stock Exchanges. The A-share market in the People's Republic of China ("China" or the "PRC") is made available to domestic PRC investors and certain foreign investors, including principally those that are appropriately licensed Hong Kong subsidiaries of certain domestic PRC financial institutions that have been approved as a Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor ("RQFII") and have obtained a RQFII license or who have been approved as a Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor ("QFII") and have obtained a QFII license. A RQFII or QFII license may be obtained by application to the China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC"). After obtaining a RQFII or QFII license, the RQFII or QFII would also apply to China's State Administration of Foreign Exchange ("SAFE") for a specific aggregate dollar amount investment quota in which the RQFII or QFII can invest in A-shares. Investment companies, such as the Fund, are not currently within the type of entities that are eligible for a RQFII or QFII license.

The Sub-Adviser has obtained RQFII status and has been granted an RQFII quota ("RQFII quota") by SAFE. The Sub-Adviser's RQFII quota provides the Fund with the ability to invest directly in the A-share market and the ability to repatriate funds managed by the Sub-Adviser on a daily basis.

The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by primarily investing directly in A-shares via the Sub-Adviser's RQFII quota. As such, the Sub-Adviser's Allocated Portion may represent all of the Fund's assets provided that the Sub-Adviser has sufficient RQFII quota. At such time that the Sub-Adviser has utilized its entire RQFII quota, the Sub-Adviser may, subject to applicable regulations, apply for an increase of the RQFII quota.

New Sub-Advisory Agreement

A copy of the form of Sub-Advisory Agreement between the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser is attached as Exhibit A to this Information Statement. Under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, subject to the supervision and direction of the Adviser, oversight of the Board and any written guidelines adopted by the Adviser or the Board, the Sub-Adviser is generally responsible for:

- providing a continuous investment program for its Allocated Portion of the Fund in accordance with the Fund's investment objective, policies and restrictions as stated in its prospectus and statement of additional information dated May 1, 2013, as amended on January 7, 2014;
- maintaining compliance policies and procedures reasonably designed to ensure compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations;
- furnishing office space, facilities, equipment, supplies and utilities required for managing its Allocated Portion;
- providing executive and clerical personnel for managing its Allocated Portion;
- placing orders for the purchase and sale of portfolio securities and selecting brokers or dealers and seeking the best overall terms available for such transactions;
- delivering trade confirmation to the Fund's Custodian (as defined herein) and Administrator (as defined herein) on a daily basis;
- maintaining records and ledgers of portfolio transactions and facilitating the sharing of such information between the Fund's Custodian and PRC sub-custodian (as defined herein); and
- providing reports to the Adviser and the Board periodically and/or as may be reasonably requested.

Under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Sub-Adviser will bear all expenses incurred by it related to providing an investment program for the Fund, but the Sub-Adviser will not be responsible for the Fund's own expenses.

For the services provided and the expenses assumed by the Sub-Adviser pursuant to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Adviser (not the Fund) will pay a monthly fee to the Sub-Adviser based on a percentage of the Fund's average daily net assets managed by the Sub-Adviser.

The Sub-Advisory Agreement will remain in effect until July 31, 2014 and will continue thereafter for successive periods of twelve months, provided that its continuance is approved at least annually (i) by a vote of a majority of the Trustees who are not “interested persons” (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Trust (“Independent Trustees”), cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval, and (ii) by the Board or by vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund.

The Sub-Advisory Agreement provides for termination, without payment of any penalty, by vote of the Board, by a vote of a majority of the Fund’s outstanding voting securities or by the Adviser on 60 days’ written notice to the Sub-Adviser. The Sub-Advisory Agreement also provides that the Sub-Adviser may terminate the Sub-Advisory Agreement, without payment of any penalty, on 60 days’ written notice to the Adviser. The Sub-Advisory Agreement terminates automatically in the event of its “assignment,” as defined in the 1940 Act, or upon termination of the Fund’s Investment Management Agreement with the Adviser.

As described above, the Adviser has received an exemptive order from the SEC enabling it to enter into investment sub-advisory agreements with unaffiliated sub-advisers without obtaining shareholder approval if certain conditions are met.

The Sub-Advisory Agreement provides that the Sub-Adviser shall not be liable to the Trust for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any loss suffered by the Fund or its shareholders in connection with the matters to which the Sub-Advisory Agreement relates, except with respect to any losses to which the Sub-Adviser may otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on its part in the performance of its duties or the reckless disregard by it of its obligations and duties under the Sub-Advisory Agreement.

BOARD CONSIDERATIONS

At a meeting (the “Meeting”) held on December 3, 2013, the Board of the Trust, including all Independent Trustees, considered and approved the Sub-Advisory Agreement between the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser with respect to the Fund.

The Board’s approval of the Sub-Advisory Agreement was based on a comprehensive consideration of all of the information available to the Trustees and was not the result of any single factor. Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Trustees’ deliberations and how the Trustees considered those factors are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently, giving different weights to various factors.

In advance of the Meeting, the Trustees received materials from the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser, as discussed below. Information provided to the Trustees from the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser included various aspects of the Fund’s investment strategies, the rationale for retaining a sub-adviser that has been granted an RQFII quota and the RQFII program generally. The Independent Trustees’ consideration of the Sub-Advisory Agreement was based, in part, on information obtained through discussions with the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser at the Meeting regarding the management of the Fund and/or based on their review of the materials provided by the Adviser and the Sub-Adviser, including the background and experience of the portfolio managers and others involved or proposed to be involved on behalf of the Sub-Adviser in the management of the Fund. The Trustees noted that the Sub-Adviser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Asset Management Co., China's largest asset management company in terms of fund assets under management. The Trustees took into account the Sub-Adviser's experience and investment management process with respect to RQFII funds, including index-based exchange-traded funds, currently managed by the Sub-Adviser. The Trustees also considered the terms of, and scope of services that the Sub-Adviser would provide under the Sub-Advisory Agreement. The Trustees also considered information with respect to the Sub-Adviser's compliance program.

In addition, the Trustees were given information regarding the expected benefits to the Fund that could be achieved by investing directly in A-shares via the Sub-Adviser's RQFII quota. The Trustees took into account the unique legal and operational aspects of the Fund and the RQFII program. The Trustees also considered materials relating to the sub-advisory fees to be paid to the Sub-Adviser by the Adviser, the advisory fees to be retained by the Adviser and information provided by the Sub-Adviser with respect to the tracking error of other RQFII funds that it manages and the fees it charges those funds, which are higher than the fees to be paid to it in respect of the Fund. The Trustees concluded that the nature, quality and extent of the services to be provided by the Sub-Adviser were appropriate based on information provided with respect to the Sub-Adviser.

The Independent Trustees were advised by and met in executive session with their independent counsel at the Meeting as part of their consideration of the Sub-Advisory Agreement.

In voting to approve the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, concluded that the terms of the Sub-Advisory Agreement are reasonable and fair in light of the services to be performed, expenses to be incurred and such other matters as the Trustees considered relevant in the exercise of their reasonable judgment. The Trustees also concluded that the sub-advisory fees were reasonable in light of the services to be provided. The Trustees further concluded that Sub-Advisory Agreement is in the best interest of the Fund and the Fund's shareholders.

That it is hereby agreed between the parties hereto as follows:

1. APPOINTMENT OF SUB-ADVISER

With respect to the Allocated Assets the Adviser hereby appoints the Sub-Adviser to act as investment adviser to the Fund for the period and on the terms herein set forth. The Sub-Adviser accepts such appointment and agrees to render the services herein set forth, for the compensation herein provided. So long as the Sub-Adviser serves as investment adviser to the Fund pursuant to this Agreement, the obligation of the Adviser under this Agreement with respect to the Fund shall be, subject in any event to the control of the Board of Trustees of the Trust (the "Board"), to allocate and reallocate the Fund's assets among the Sub-Adviser, the Adviser and other sub-advisers as the Adviser, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate. The Adviser will determine and review with the Sub-Adviser the investment policies of the Fund; and, with respect to the Allocated Assets, the Sub-Adviser shall have the obligation of furnishing continuously an investment program and making investment decisions for the Fund, adhering to applicable investment objectives, policies and restrictions and placing all orders for the purchase and sale of portfolio securities for the Fund and such other services set forth in Section 2 hereof. The Adviser will compensate the Sub-Adviser for its services to the Fund. The Adviser or the Fund, subject to the terms of this Agreement, may terminate the services of the Sub-Adviser at any time in their sole discretion, and the Adviser shall at such time assume the responsibilities of the Sub-Adviser unless and until a successor investment adviser is selected.

2. DUTIES OF SUB-ADVISER

With respect to the Allocated Assets only, the Sub-Adviser, at its own expense, shall furnish the following services and facilities to the Trust:

- (a) Investment Program. The Sub-Adviser will (i) furnish continuously an investment program for the Fund, (ii) determine (subject to the overall supervision and review of the Board and the Adviser) what investments shall be purchased, held, sold or exchanged and what portion, if any, of the Allocated Assets shall be held uninvested, (iii) make changes on behalf of the Fund in the investments, and (iv) place orders for the purchase and sale of the securities of the Allocated Assets. The Sub-Adviser will provide the services hereunder in accordance with the Fund's investment objectives, policies and restrictions as stated in the then current prospectus and statement of additional information which is part of the Trust's Registration Statement filed with the SEC, as amended from time to time (together, the "Registration Statement"), and pursuant to any written guidelines provided by the Adviser, along with copies of the Trust's Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust and Amended and Restated By-Laws as they may be amended from time to time, copies of which shall be sent to the Sub-Adviser by the Adviser. The Sub-Adviser also will manage, supervise and conduct such other affairs and business of the Trust and matters incidental thereto, as the Sub-Adviser and the Trust agree, subject always to the control of the Board and to the provisions of the Trust's Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, the Trust's Amended and Restated By-Laws, the 1940 Act and applicable Chinese law and regulation. With respect to the services provided by the Sub-Adviser under this Agreement, it shall be responsible for compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. The Sub-Adviser will adopt, or has adopted, and will maintain procedures reasonably designed to ensure such compliance.
- (b) Office Space and Facilities. The Sub-Adviser will arrange to furnish office space, all necessary office facilities, simple business equipment, supplies, utilities, and telephone service required for managing the Allocated Assets.
- (c) Personnel. The Sub-Adviser shall provide executive and clerical personnel for managing the Allocated Assets, and shall compensate officers and Trustees of the Trust or Fund if such persons are also employees of the Sub-Adviser or its affiliates, except as otherwise provided herein.

(d) Portfolio Transactions. All orders placed by the Sub-Adviser for the purchase and sale of portfolio securities shall be for the account of the Fund with brokers or dealers selected by the Sub-Adviser. The Fund will pay the actual transaction costs, including without limitation brokerage commissions on portfolio transactions in accordance with this Section 2(d). In executing portfolio transactions and selecting brokers or dealers, the Sub-Adviser will use its best efforts to seek on behalf of the Fund the best overall terms available. In assessing the best overall terms available for any transaction, the Sub-Adviser shall consider all factors it deems relevant, including, without limitation, the breadth of the market in the security, the price of the security, the financial condition and execution capability of the broker or dealer, and the reasonableness of the commission, if any (for the specific transaction and on a continuing basis). In evaluating the best overall terms available, and in selecting the broker or dealer to execute a particular transaction, the Sub-Adviser may also consider the brokerage and research services (as those terms are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) provided to the Sub-Adviser or an affiliate of the Sub-Adviser in respect of accounts over which it exercises investment discretion. The Sub-Adviser is authorized to pay to a broker or dealer who provides such brokerage and research services a commission for executing a portfolio transaction which is in excess of the amount of commission another broker or dealer would have charged for effecting that transaction if the Sub-Adviser determines in good faith that such commission was reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services provided by such broker or dealer, viewed in terms of that particular transaction or in terms of all of the accounts over which investment discretion is so exercised by the Sub-Adviser or its affiliates. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the combining of orders for the sale or purchase of securities or other investments with other accounts managed by the Sub-Adviser or its affiliates provided that the Sub-Adviser does not favor any account over any other account and provided that any purchase or sale orders executed contemporaneously shall be allocated in an equitable manner among the accounts involved in accordance with procedures adopted by the Sub-Adviser. The Sub-Adviser is authorized to allocate the orders placed by it on behalf of the Fund to the Adviser, Sub-Adviser, or another of the Fund's sub-adviser(s), or any affiliate thereof that is registered as a broker-dealer with the SEC, in compliance with Rule 17e-1 and with any procedures that the Trust's Board of Trustees shall adopt from time to time.

(e) Delivery of Trade Confirmations. In connection with the purchase and sale of securities for the Fund, the Sub-Adviser will arrange for the transmission to the custodian and record keeping agent for the Trust on a daily basis, such confirmations, trade tickets, and other documents and information, including, but not limited to, Cusip, Sedol, or other numbers that identify securities to be purchased or sold by the Sub-Adviser on behalf of the Fund, as may be reasonably necessary to enable the custodian and record keeping agent to perform their respective administrative and record keeping responsibilities with respect to the Allocated Assets. With respect to portfolio securities that comprise the Allocated Assets to be purchased or sold through the Depository Trust Company, the Sub-Adviser will arrange for the automatic transmission of the confirmation of such trades to the Fund's custodian and record keeping agent for the Fund. The Sub-Adviser will monitor on a daily basis the determination by the custodian and record keeping agent for the Fund of the valuation of portfolio securities and other investments. The Sub-Adviser, or its agent, will assist the custodian and record keeping agent for the Fund in determining or confirming, consistent with the procedures and policies stated in the Registration Statement for the Trust, the value of any portfolio securities or other assets for which the custodian and record keeping agent seek assistance from, or identifies for review, by the Sub-Adviser. The Sub-Adviser, or its agent, shall assist the Board and the Adviser in determining fair value of such securities or assets for which market quotations are not readily available. In addition, the Sub-Adviser shall exercise its best efforts in promptly notifying the Adviser of any material events affecting the securities comprising the Allocated Assets of which the Sub-Adviser is or becomes aware. In no event shall the Sub-Adviser be responsible for the final determination of the price of portfolio securities or other assets of the Fund.

(f) Fund Investment Records and Ledgers. The Sub-Adviser will provide the Trust or the Adviser with all of the Fund's investment records and ledgers maintained by the Sub-Adviser (which shall not include the records and ledgers maintained by the custodian and record keeping agent for the Trust) as are necessary to assist the Trust and the Adviser to comply with requirements of the 1940 Act and the Advisers Act as well as other applicable laws and may retain a copy. The Sub-Adviser shall also facilitate the sharing of information between the PRC sub-custodian and the Fund's custodian. The Sub-Adviser will furnish to regulatory authorities having the requisite authority any information or reports related to the services provided by the Sub-Adviser to the Fund which may be requested in order to ascertain whether the operations of the Trust are being conducted in a manner consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that the arrangements have been made for the safekeeping of any of the Fund's assets (and the Fund's documents of title) with such custodian as chosen by the Adviser from time to time with notice to the Sub-Adviser of the same. The Sub-Adviser shall not hold, or have custody of, any asset of the Fund (or the Fund's documents of title, if any) on behalf of the Fund or the Adviser. The Adviser has obtained the agreement of the Fund's custodian and PRC sub-custodian to act in accordance with the Sub-Adviser's instructions in connection with the Sub-Adviser's performance of the Sub-Adviser's duties under this Agreement.

(g) Other Reports. Upon request, the Sub-Adviser will provide reports to the Board for consideration at meetings of the Board on the investment program for the Fund and the issues and securities represented in the Fund's portfolio, and will furnish the Board with respect to the Fund such periodic and, at the Fund's expense, special reports as the Trustees or the Adviser may reasonably request.

(h) No Consultation with Other Sub-Advisers. In accordance with Rule 17a-10 under the 1940 Act and any other applicable law, the Sub-Adviser shall not consult with any other sub-adviser to the Fund or any sub-adviser to any other investment company or investment company series for which the Adviser serves as investment adviser concerning transactions of the Fund in securities or other assets, other than for purposes of complying with the conditions of paragraph (a) and (b) of Rule 12d3-1 under the 1940 Act.

3. EXPENSES OF THE TRUST

(a) Except as provided in Sections 2(d) and (h) above, the Sub-Adviser shall assume and pay all of its own costs and expenses related to providing an investment program for the Fund with respect to the Allocated Assets. The Fund shall be responsible for all its own expenses.

6. RELATIONS WITH TRUST

Subject to and in accordance with the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust and Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Trust, governing documents of the Sub-Adviser and any applicable law, rule or regulation, it is understood (i) that Trustees, officers, agents and shareholders of the Trust may be an interested person (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Sub-Adviser (or any successor thereof) as directors, officers, or otherwise; (ii) that directors, officers, agents and shareholders of the Sub-Adviser may be an interested person of the Trust as Trustees, officers, shareholders or otherwise; and (iii) that the Sub-Adviser may be an interested person of the Trust as a shareholder or otherwise and that the effect of any such association as an interested person shall be governed by said Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, Amended and Restated By-Laws in effect on the date of this Agreement and any amendments thereof of which the Sub-Adviser is notified in writing, and any applicable law, rule or regulation.

7. LIABILITY OF ADVISER, SUB-ADVISER AND OFFICERS AND TRUSTEES OF THE TRUST

(a) Neither the Adviser, Sub-Adviser nor any of their officers, directors, employees, agents or controlling persons or assigns or Trustees or officers of the Trust shall be liable for any error of judgment or law, or for any loss suffered by the Trust or its shareholders in connection with the matters to which this Agreement relates, except that no provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to protect the Adviser, Sub-Adviser or such persons against any liability, to the Trust or its shareholders to which the Adviser or Sub-Adviser might otherwise be subject by reason of any willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or the reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Adviser shall be liable for any loss suffered by the Trust or its shareholders in connection with any trade errors relating to the Allocated Assets by reason of any misfeasance or negligence of the Sub-Adviser in its performance of its duties under this Agreement.

8. INDEMNIFICATION

(a) Notwithstanding Section 7 of this Agreement, the Adviser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Sub-Adviser, any affiliated person of the Sub-Adviser, and each person, if any, who, within the meaning of Section 15 of the 1933 Act, controls (each, a “Controlling Person”) the Sub-Adviser (all of such persons being referred to as “Sub-Adviser Indemnified Persons”) against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or litigation (including legal and other) expenses to which a Sub-Adviser Indemnified Person may become subject under the 1933 Act, the 1940 Act, the Advisers Act, under any other statute, at common law or otherwise, arising out of the Adviser’s responsibilities under this Agreement or to the Trust which (1) may be based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact supplied by, or which is the responsibility of, the Adviser and contained in the Registration Statement covering shares of the Fund or any amendment thereof or any supplement thereto, or the omission or alleged omission or failure to state therein a material fact known or which should have been known to the Adviser and was required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, unless such statement or omission was made in reliance upon information furnished to the Adviser or the Trust or to any affiliated person of the Adviser by a Sub-Adviser Indemnified Person; or (2) may be based upon a failure to comply with, or a breach of, any provision of this Agreement by the Adviser; provided, however, that in no case shall the indemnity in favor of the Sub-Adviser Indemnified Person be deemed to protect such person against any liability to which any such person would otherwise be subject by reason of any willful misfeasance or gross negligence in the discharge of the Sub-Adviser’s obligations and the performance of the Sub-Adviser’s duties under this Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 7 of this Agreement, the Sub-Adviser agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Trust and its Trustees and officers, the Adviser, any affiliated person of the Adviser or the Trust, and each Controlling Person of the Adviser or the Trust (all of such persons being referred to as “Trust/Adviser Indemnified Persons”) against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, or litigation (including legal and other) expenses to which a Trust/Adviser Indemnified Person may become subject under the 1933 Act, the 1940 Act, the Advisers Act, under any other statute, at common law or otherwise, arising out of the Sub-Adviser’s responsibilities as sub-investment adviser to the Fund which (1) may be based upon any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact supplied by, or which is the responsibility of, the Sub-Adviser and contained in the Registration Statement covering shares of the Fund, any amendment thereof, any supplement thereto or any marketing materials relating to the Fund, or the omission or alleged omission or failure to state therein a material fact known or which should have been known to the Sub-Adviser and was required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, unless such statement or omission was made in reliance upon information furnished to the Sub-Adviser or to any affiliated person of the Sub-Adviser by a Trust/Adviser Indemnified Person; or (2) may be based upon a failure to comply with, or a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Sub-Adviser; provided, however, that in no case shall the indemnity in favor of a Trust/Adviser Indemnified Person be deemed to protect such person against any liability to which any such person would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance or gross negligence in the discharge of the obligations and the performance of the duties of the Adviser under this Agreement.

(c) Neither the Adviser nor the Sub-Adviser shall be liable under this Section 8 with respect to any claim made against a Trust/Adviser Indemnified Person or Sub-Adviser Indemnified Person (together, the “Indemnified Persons” or each an “Indemnified Person”) unless such Indemnified Person shall have notified the indemnifying party in writing within a reasonable time after the summons or other first legal process giving information of the nature of the claim shall have been served upon such Indemnified Person (or such Indemnified Person shall have received notice of such service on any designated agent), but failure to notify the indemnifying party of any such claim shall not relieve the indemnifying party from any liability which it may have to the Indemnified Person against whom such action is brought otherwise than on account of this Section 8. In case any such action is brought against the Indemnified Person, the indemnifying party will be entitled to participate, at its own expense, in the defense thereof or, after notice to the Indemnified Person, to assume the defense thereof, with counsel satisfactory to the Indemnified Person. If the indemnifying party assumes the defense and the selection of counsel by the indemnifying party to represent both the Indemnified Person and the indemnifying party would result in a conflict of interests and would not, in the reasonable judgment of the Indemnified Person, adequately represent the interests of the Indemnified Person, the indemnifying party will, at its own expense, assume the defense with counsel to the indemnifying party and, also at its own expense, with separate counsel to an Indemnified Person which counsel shall be satisfactory to the indemnifying party and the Indemnified Person. The Indemnified Person will bear the fees and expenses of any additional counsel retained by it, and the indemnifying party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Person under this Agreement for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Person independently in connection with the defense thereof other than reasonable costs of investigation. The indemnifying party shall not have the right to compromise or settle the litigation without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Person if the compromise or settlement results, or may result, in a finding of wrongdoing on the part of the Indemnified Person.

(d) The parties agree not to, directly or through an affiliate, make any claim against the other party for any special, indirect or consequential damages in respect of any breach or wrongful conduct (whether the claim therefore is based on contract, tort or duty imposed by the law) in connection with, arising out of or in any way related to the omission or event occurring in connection with this Agreement.

9. DURATION AND TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

(a) Duration. This Agreement shall become effective on the date hereof. Unless terminated as herein provided, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until July 31, 2014 and shall continue in full force and effect for periods of one year thereafter so long as such continuance is approved at least annually (i) by either the Trustees of the Trust or by vote of a majority of the outstanding voting shares (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Trust, and (ii) in either event by the vote of a majority of the Trustees of the Trust who are not parties to this Agreement or “interested persons” (as defined in the 1940 Act) of any such party, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval.

(b) Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time, without payment of any penalty, by vote of the Trustees of the Trust or by vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities (as defined in the 1940 Act), or by the Adviser or Sub-Adviser, on sixty (60) days’ prior written notice to the other party.

(c) Automatic Termination. This Agreement shall automatically and immediately terminate in the event of its “assignment” as defined in the 1940 Act.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

(a) The parties understand that proprietary and confidential information will, from time to time, be exchanged. "Proprietary and confidential information" may include, but is not limited to, client lists, business and investment strategies, data compilations, financial statements and other information about the Fund, the Adviser or the Sub-Adviser; this information shall be deemed privileged and confidential if it is clearly designated in writing as such at the time it is exchanged or designated at a later time ("Confidential Information"), provided that disclosure of Confidential Information prior to the designation shall not constitute a breach of this provision. Each party agrees not to disclose or disseminate Confidential Information without the written approval of the other party. Further, the parties acknowledge that Confidential Information shall be kept secret and confidential for a period of one (1) year from the date of receipt or any update thereto, unless a later date is specified in writing.

(b) Confidential Information shall exclude any material that is (i) lawfully within the recipient's possession prior to the date of this Agreement and not subject to duty of confidentiality; (ii) voluntarily disclosed by a third-party so long as this third-party does not breach any obligation of confidentiality with respect to such information; (iii) is generally known or revealed to the public through no act or omission of the recipient; (iv) independently developed by the recipient without use or reference to the proprietary or confidential information of the other party; (v) is requested by any Federal or State regulatory body, court, association, authority or agency such as the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or the Securities and Exchange Commission; or (vi) has not been specifically designated as Confidential Information in writing by the party claiming confidentiality.

(c) This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original agreement but such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

(b) This Agreement shall not be assigned, in whole or in part, by any party to this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party hereto.

(c) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

(d) If any provision of this Agreement shall be held or made invalid by a court decision, statute, rule or otherwise, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby.

13. USE OF NAME

(a) It is understood that the names "Van Eck" and "Market Vectors" or any derivative thereof or logo associated with those names is the valuable property of the Adviser and its affiliates, and that the Sub-Adviser has the right to use such name (or derivative or logo) only with the approval of the Adviser and only so long as the Adviser is Adviser to the Fund. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Sub-Adviser shall forthwith cease to use such name (or derivative or logo).

Unless the Adviser gives the Sub-Adviser written instructions to the contrary, the Sub-Adviser shall vote all proxies for the Fund's portfolio securities that are part of the Allocated Assets in accordance with the Adviser's proxy voting policies which have been adopted by the Fund, except to the extent the Sub-Adviser determines that it would be in the best interest of the Fund's shareholders to deviate from such guidelines for one or more specific purposes.

15. SERVICES NOT EXCLUSIVE

(a) It is understood that the services of the Sub-Adviser are not exclusive, and nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Sub-Adviser (or its affiliates) from providing similar services to other clients, including investment companies (whether or not their investment objectives and policies are similar to those of the Fund) or from engaging in other activities.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, the Adviser shall not appoint another entity as sub-adviser of the Fund during the term of this Agreement unless one of the following events arises:
