

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Africa Index ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Africa Index ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Africa Index ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Africa Index ETF	USD	0.3850	0.0816	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Brazil Small-Cap ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Brazil Small-Cap ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Brazil Small-Cap ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Brazil Small-Cap ETF	USD	0.3990	0.0397	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

Market Vectors ETF Trust – ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust - ChinaAMC A-Share ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in Market Vectors ETF Trust – ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
ChinaAMC CSI 300 ETF	USD	1.4090	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
ChinaAMC SME-ChiNext ETF	USD	Nil	Nil	N/a	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Egypt Index ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Egypt Index ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Egypt Index ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Egypt Index ETF	USD	0.6060	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Gulf States Index ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Gulf States Index ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Gulf States Index ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Gulf States Index ETF	USD	0.9380	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – India Small-Cap Index ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – India Small-Cap Index ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – India Small-Cap Index ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
India Small-Cap Index ETF	USD	1.3460	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Indonesia Index ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Indonesia Index ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Indonesia Index ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Indonesia Index ETF	USD	0.4480	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Indonesia Small-Cap ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Indonesia Small-Cap ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust –Indonesia Small-Cap ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Indonesia Small-Cap ETF	USD	0.0020	0.0229	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Israel ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Israel ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck ETF Trust – Israel ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Israel ETF	USD	0.3760	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Poland ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Poland ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Poland ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Poland ETF	USD	0.4350	0.0113	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Russia ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Russia ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Russia ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Russia ETF	USD	0.5190	0.0030	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Russia Small-Cap ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Russia Small-Cap ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Russia Small-Cap ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Russia Small-Cap ETF	USD	0.3820	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Vietnam ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Vietnam ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Vietnam ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Vietnam ETF	USD	0.4990	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes
		0.0470		05 January 2016

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust - Agribusiness ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust - Agribusiness ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust - Agribusiness ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Agribusiness ETF	USD	1.3430	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Coal ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Coal ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Coal ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Coal ETF	USD	0.2890	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Global Alternative Energy ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Global Alternative Energy ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Global Alternative Energy ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Global Alternative Energy ETF	USD	0.3090	0.1901	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Gold Miners ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Gold Miners ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Gold Miners ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Gold Miners ETF	USD	0.1160	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Junior Gold Miners ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Junior Gold Miners ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Junior Gold Miners ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Junior Gold Miners ETF	USD	0.1390	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Refiners ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Refiners ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Refiners ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Oil Refiners ETF	USD	0.0920	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Services ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Services ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Oil Services ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Oil Services ETF	USD	0.6330	0.1436	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Natural Resources ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Natural Resources ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Natural Resources ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Natural Resources ETF	USD	0.7890	0.0134	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Rare Earth/Strategic Metals ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Rare Earth/ Strategic Metals ETF	USD	0.6390	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Solar Energy ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Solar Energy ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Solar Energy ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Solar Energy ETF	USD	0.5930	0.0361	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Steel ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Steel ETF

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Steel ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Steel ETF	USD	1.0430	0.0318	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Unconventional Oil & Gas ETF	USD	0.3420	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes

VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Uranium + Nuclear Energy ETF (Formerly known as Market Vectors ETF Trust – Uranium + Nuclear Energy ETF)

Report of income for UK tax purposes

Dear Investor,

This website comprises a report of income to investors who held investments in VanEck Vectors ETF Trust – Uranium + Nuclear Energy ETF as at 31 December 2015.

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the fund is required to make reports of income to the investors. There may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2015.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:

- a) Amount actually distributed to participants per share
- b) Excess of reported income per share over amount actually distributed
- c) Dates on which distributions were made
- d) Fund distribution date
- e) Whether the fund continues to be a reporting fund at the present date

	CCY	(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)	(e)
Uranium+ Nuclear Energy ETF	USD	1.4860	Nil	28 December 2015	30 June 2016	Yes